Commission Discusses Deficit Budget For Coming Year – Set Called Meeting

Another $30,000 bite into Randall County's dwindling surplus loomed Monday as commissioners somberly discussed a deficit budget for the coming year.

The budget and proposals for financing a South Amarillo court house annex will be discussed in a called meeting of commissioners court at 9 o'clock today (Thursday).

"We're going to wake up in a few years and be broke," admonished Commissioner Paul Lindsey.

"I think we ought to keep a little surplus on hand."

Lindsey said the county must either cut spending or provide more revenue.

In grim reality, the proposed budget for 1975 of $1,341,987 is more than $40,000 less than the current budget of $1,373,804 which is expected to take a whopping $174,169 out of the county's surplus.

At the beginning of 1974 the county had $371,540.79 in its surplus fund which is expected to diminish to $286,520.79 by the end of the year and go down to $256,210.79 by the end of 1975 if the budget proposed by County Judge Woody Pond is adopted.

County Auditor Betty Hodges said cost of county government was up this year due to inflation, building and maintaining county roads and salary increases.

As if this wasn't enough the court got another gloomy report from Architect Art Vaughan and Financial Adviser Bob Davis of Columbian Securities on the prospects of constructing a new court house annex in South Amarillo.

Vaughan said he doesn't see how cost of the proposed 15,500 square foot facility can be cut below $31 a square foot.

This along with necessary outside work and some furnishings would bring the bill to near $600,000, he estimated.

Commissioners plan to use $300,000 in revenue sharing funds from the federal government in the construction but the remainder would have to be raised by certificates of obligation.

The court had planned a 10-year pay-off but Davis said this could be stretched to 15 or even 17 years if necessary.

Outside Auditor Bill Francis presented job descriptions and proposed a pay raise scale for county employees. This included a longevity pay increase plan which the court tentatively rejected.

"I'd rather see raises given on merit," declared Lindsey.

This will also be discussed at today's meeting of the court. The proposed budget provides for 6 percent increase in employees' salaries.

"This doesn't mean that every employee will get that much raise," one commissioner declared.

In other business, the court heard a report from Road Superintendent Joe West, commended Potter County Sheriff T.L. Baker for his handling of the Potter County Jail riot last week and declined to give Justice of the Peace W.W. Hancock a full time secretary.

West Texas State University football squad charged out onto the field in Kimbrough Memorial Stadium last Wednesday to meet the area news media. Press day was held August 21 for the benefit of the newspapers, radio, and television sports writers. One of the team members was heard to say, "We were rated last in the conference in '72 and we shared the first place. Last year we were rated first and came in way, way down. We are rated last again, I think, so they'd better watch out."

'Texas' Ninth Season Ends With Record Count

Music and dancing under the stars have ceased at "TEXAS" for the 1974 summer season which drew the largest crowd ever in 89,640 persons who saw the show during its ninth season.

The outdoor musical drama was presented Saturday evening in Pioneer Amphitheatre at Palo Duro Canyon for the final time this summer with a total of 675,662 persons being registered at the show since it was first presented in 1966.

In its ninth season, "TEXAS" drew the largest audiences with 89,640 attending in 1974. A breakdown of audience counts during the seasons would include 61,338 attending during the opening year in 1966; 64,925 in 1967; 65,012 in 1968; 71,590 in 1969; 78,702 in 1970; 75,942 in 1971; 82,248 in 1972; and 86,265 in 1973.

This year 41 per cent of those attending the show came from within 100 miles and figures show that 36 per cent of those attending the show in 1972-73 seasons were from a comparable distance. The percentage of people traveling more than 500 miles to see the show was 29 per cent for the ninth season, slightly less than in the two previous years.

In spite of heavy, prolonged rains in the area during the final week of the summer musical drama the "TEXAS" cast was able to play through the fire dance on Friday evening and completed the final 1974 performance on schedule Saturday evening. According to theatre custom, the show does not count as a rain-out when attending audiences have seen the first act up to intermission.

According to the Panhandle Heritage Foundation which sponsors the show, "only one complete rain-out occurred this year." The one 1974 rain-out was August 5 and brings the total of lost performances in the nine seasons to 12.

Major Hoi and Captain Luoro of Vietnam received the triangles for those traveling the farthest to attend the performance on August 23 and the season was concluded with Mrs. Kloudone of Czechoslovakia receiving the triangle at the August 24 show. Attendance counts those final evenings were 1,370 persons for the August 23 show and 1,434 for the final show which included a number of church and tour groups.

A group of travelers registering 13 from Iran, two from Saudi Arabia and one from Egypt were in the audience Friday evening. Guests attending the show this year represented 66 different countries and people were registered from all states in the Union.

Parking attendants for the show registered 18,423 cars being parked and 426 buses during the season.

The tenth season for the outdoor musical drama, which was written by noted playwright Paul Green, is already being scheduled for the summer of 1975 to open June 18 and continue through August 23.

Auditions for the 1975 season will be on the following schedule: January 18 in Canyon, Texas — January 19 in Lubbock, Texas —

New ROTC Commander Named

The West Texas State University Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) will begin the fall semester with a new commander, Col. John Luke.

Luke, who comes to West Texas State from a three-year tour of duty in Germany, predicts "a general resurgence" in interest in ROTC on college campuses.

"This is due to a general change in attitude of the young people toward the military, especially since the ending of the Vietnam war."

Luke himself served two tours of Army duty in Southeast Asia, in 1966-67 and 1970-71, the last spent commanding an infantry battalion.

"ROTC has changed in the last ten years," Luke says. "We've gotten away from the mickey mouse part of it. We do not devote as much time to marching and drilling."

Although ROTC has changed in several ways, Luke observes that "the officer is essentially the same man — except in one respect. The young officer today does not readily accept flat orders as we did. He needs and expects a reason."

This is not a lessening in discipline, Luke maintains. Though "there are times when there is not enough time for an explanation or that it is not in order."

Enrolling in ROTC in college has a unique advantage, according to Luke, because it provides leadership training not normally provided. "In ROTC, a student learns the principles behind working with people and is given an opportunity to put them into practice."

He noted that there are several special programs available in ROTC about which many may not know. The first is one that allows the military veteran from any branch of the service who is enrolled in college to receive up to three years credit in the four-year ROTC program for his experience.

"This would mean that the student may only have to take one year of courses and the

Fine Arts Building Top Priority With Director Of Development

The future fine arts building planned for the WTSU campus will be top priority for Keith Winter, director of development for the school, as he begins to plan for the coming year. Winter, who took over the job last September, stated that funds for the project would be of major importance.

Winter stated that presently there are some moneys available but these will have been expended by November of this year.

Winter said that other areas of prime interest will be the Presidents Development Fund, which is being used in the university outreach, development in the school of agriculture and scholarships for students at WT.

Two million dollars is the goal Winter has before him as he is working with foundations and individuals concerning the fine arts building.

In the President's Development Fund, Winter hopes to have 50,000 to 100,000 dollars. Winter stated that one new member joined the President's Development Fund Tuesday. The new member was unsolicited. Winter is pleased with the progress that the development board is making. He stated that there is an excellent response from the Canyon-Amarillo area. He pointed out that one faculty member gave a check for $1000 Friday. He said that is exciting to see the university help the community and the community in turn help the university.

He said that the development fund is receiving good response in other areas. He stated that he will soon begin working in the Hereford area to entise support there.

"Every school and civic club in the Panhandle should give scholarships for students to attend WT," stated Winter. Winter said that there will be much emphasis placed on scholarships during the coming year.

Winter stated that good response in the area of scholarships is coming from local and area residents and former students. He stated that these citizens are a key area in the development of WT.

He stated that the School of Agriculture is especially working in the area of scholarships for students. Winter stated that this field of study is important to the economy of the Panhandle area.

Another top priority for Winter and the development program at WT is the pharmacy school that has been approved by the 21 member state coordinating board. Winter stated that three schools are being considered for the school-WTSU, Texas Tech and the University of Texas at Dallas. "We have done everything we can do to draw the school," said Winter. He stated that Dr. Lloyd Watkins, President of WT, and others had worked hard to get the school. He stated that it was now up to the board to make the final decision.

School Board Approves Budget

The Canyon Independent School District school board met Tuesday night at 8:30 p.m. in the superintendents office at the high school to discuss the proposed budget for the coming school year and to approve the amended budget for last year.

The board found that expenditures were $538.75 below the original budget. Revenue was also lower. Revenue was $15,102.62 below the original estimate.

It was pointed out to the board by Ronnie Wood, business manager for CISD that the school system did not have to borrow the $60,000 that they felt would be needed earlier in the year. The board expressed their approval of the amended budget. They felt satisfied with the budget compared to expenses and the rise in cost of needed articles. Jerry Jacobs, superintendent of Canyon schools, stated that the school system is $54,000 better off than last year at this time.

The proposed budget for the 1974-75 school year was accepted. The budget calls for the spending of $2,808,761 during the year.

Jacobs read a letter from Governor Dolph Briscoe in reply to the May letter the board wrote concerning the need for a special session of the legislature to appropriate moneys for the use of public school systems. The letter stated that Briscoe will give his support to the needs of public schools.

The board also approved the tax sheltered annuity plan of Mid Continent Life Insurance Company at the recommendation of Jacobs.

Six Indicted By Grand Jury

Six persons were indicted Monday by a Randall County grand jury which also discussed Happy Wheat Growers Feed Yard but took no action.

Indicted were Jim Wayne Loutzenheiser, 21, Lubbock, and James Al Petty on charges of aggravated robbery; Michele Mershon, 21, Amarillo, who is accused of attempting to obtain drugs with a forged prescription; Alfred Lee Nichols, 20, Amarillo, charged with burglary; and John Diaz Jiminez, 21, Plainview, charged with assault on a Canyon police officer.

District Attorney George Dowlen said Loutzenheiser and Petty are accused of the armed robbery June 26 of the Twin Drive In Theater in South Amarillo of $400.

A third person not yet in custody was also indicted in connection with the robbery.

Petty, who is alleged to have

Speedy Trial — If Wanted

Defendants in criminal proceedings in Randall County can get a speedy trial — if they want it.

Usually, they don't says Dist. Atty. George Dowlen.

While U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen of Texas pushes in the Congress a measure which demands speedy trials for defendants in federal courts, Dowlen said at least in Randall County at the state trial court level, speedy trial is available for those who desire it.

Bentsen is sponsor of a bill which would require a trial to be held for defendants within 60 days after their arrest in federal courts. The bill would not impact on state court systems but a recent Bentsen press summary of the legislation indicates his aim is also to eventually effect state trial courts.

"In Randall County, we have no difficulty whatever in offering anybody a speedy trial who requests one because of the way our dockets are set up in district court," Dowlen said. "Invariably we can have cases set within three months after charges are originally filed."

Dowlen said preference in prosecution of cases is given here to those defendants who must remain in jail because they cannot make bail.

"There's no question the county jail is not a good place to have felons," he said. "They need to be in the penitentiary and not in the jail."

Consequently, the prosecutor's office makes special efforts to expedite the trials of those felons pending trial in jail.

"There is no way in which the defendant cannot be tried in Randall County within 60 days if he wants it," the district attorney said.

The great delay in court action for defendants stems primarily from the unwillingness of defendants to go into court, he said.

In the county, some cases have been delayed as much as 12 to 14 months at the insistence of the defense counsel.

Dowlen said the case which went the longest before trial involved unusual circumstances. A woman accused of a crime remained in jail while she was pregnant. After the birth of the child, she filed a motion alleging she was mentally unbalanced and further delays ensued for psychological testing.

One mechanism which allows dockets to remain relatively clear in the county is plea bargaining, a mechanism whereby the defense and prosecuting attornies discuss the defendant's case and the defendant is allowed to plead guilty to the charge with the judge to set punishment.

"My criteria (in plea bargaining) is to take what the offense is and the crime, age and record of the defendant, the minimum and maximum punishments and then apply to that what in all likelihood a judge and jury would give the defendant," Dowlen said.

An experienced defense attorney, he noted, will use the same type formula to meet with the district attorney to decide the fate of the defendant.

School's Out On Labor Day

The first holiday for schools of the Canyon Independent School District will be Monday, September 2, as classes are dismissed for the national Labor Day observance. Students and teachers will return to their classes on Tuesday, September 3.

Self Defense Ruled In Shootout

Randall County authorities have ruled self defense in a shootout in which one man died Sunday in South Amarillo.

The dead man was Carlos Duran who was shot to death in the 3800 block of Tyler in Amarillo after an alleged week long dispute with the man who did the shooting.

District Attorney George Dowlen said Duran is reported to have threatened the life of Gilbert Saldivar of 3905 Tyler in Amarillo if Saldivar would not divulge the whereabouts of his

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

The American people are about to be told that this is no longer the promised land where the poor live better than the rich in the old countries.

Government is and has been procrastinating for some time contemplating the best way to tell the public that austerity (for Americans) is something the country must face not for a day, not for a year but from now on.

There was once a time when we not only could produce everything we needed but we could also glut the world market with almost any kind of goods from manufactured merchandise to farm products.

Hard as it is to face, we are now a have not nation importing much of what we use.

Consumers are still berating the Nixon administration for selling away wheat and other agricultural goods shoving up the cost of living.

There's a hard fact of life in world trade called balance of payments. We must export in order to import and sometimes we must sell away goods we need in order to purchase goods we MUST have.

There is a time soon when the unhappy administration in power will have to tell the American public that a nation with 4 percent of the world's population can no longer consume more than half the world's goods.

No matter who sits in the White House it is a message that sooner or later we will have to hear.

Dollar diplomacy no longer being at all feasible, the only hope of this country as I see it is the American farmer.

I'm afraid we will neglect his role in the new scheme of things just as we ignored the experts who as early as 1948 began telling us that our supply of crude was not inexhaustible.

We didn't listen.

As a result we face $1 a gallon gasoline.

Already we, the people, have thrown a monkey wrench into delicate machinery of world trade in agricultural products.

The Sugar Import Act which insured raw sugar from the Philippines and South America died last year, done to death not by sugar growers of this country, but by myopic American consumer pressure groups.

These short sighted people who obviously haven't kept up with shifting centers of economic power in the world of the 1970s reasoned that if sugar quotas were no longer guaranteed by this country then the price would decline and sugar at the supermarket would be much cheaper.

Results were just the opposite. Price of raw sugar soared from about 11 cents to something more than 30 cents a pound in a few short months.

Consumers learned quickly that Japanese and Germans with money on their hips like something sweet in their coffee and tea too.

It will take more than a spoonful of very expensive sugar to make this bitter medicine go down.

Highway patrolmen are complaining that they are having a hard time enforcing traffic laws on the highways because motorists are signaling each other about the presence of officers on the roads.

"They don't seem to realize that they are helping to kill people by doing this," one highway patrolman declared.

"What if you signal a motorist south of happy that he is approaching a radar check and he slows down from 90 to go through the zone and then resumes his excessive speed?" the patrolman asked. "What could be the result?"

"Think how you would feel if that same motorist came on through Canyon and ran over and killed your child or grandchild. How would you feel about your part in it?"

The patrolman pointed out that good people who say they are for law and order are actually helping hardened criminals, armed robbers, murderers and rapists, elude road blocks every day.

"It just doesn't make sense for you taxpayers to send us out there to enforce the law and then do your best to prevent us from doing it," the veteran patrolman declared wearily.

He cited one instance in which signals from other motorists enabled an armed robber to escape a road block near Childress.

Tires Stolen Off Car

The Ray Wylie family of 1711 Brookhaven awoke Sunday morning to find the tires on their 1974 Buick Station wagon had been stolen. The amount of the loss of the spoked hubs and lugs totaled $523.

The thieves used a flat jack to lift the car and remove the wheels. The car was left perched on cinder blocks.

The theft was reported when Wylie's son got ready to start his paper route and asked his father to drive him on the route because of the rain.

The wheels, according to Wylie, will also fit late model Chevrolet pickups.

According to Al Stewart, chief of police in Canyon, the same thing happened last summer. Stewart stated that it did not seem that the same people who took the tires last year were involved in this theft.

CARL JOHNSON CALLED in to report that several Gene Howe area scouts participated in a swim meet at the Aquatic Club over this past weekend.

Tim and Mike Glenn, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Don Glenn, and Ronnie Kyle, all of Troop 112, took individual placings, as well as contributing to their troop's winning of first place in the team events of volley ball and inner tube.

Mike won third place honors in the one hundred yard back stroke; third in the fifty yard back stroke; and third in the fifty yard free style. Tim won first place in the water tub event. Roby Boss of Troop 132 emerged as high point winner in the entire meet! Troop 132 won second place in the team events. Gerald Strain, the new Scout Executive of the Llano Estacado Council, awarded the team trophies to the winning troops.

DON GLENN AND Jim Thomas accompanied 41 scouts to Troop 112's summer camp around the first of August. This year the troop went to Jack's Creek above Pecos and settled down in a grove of aspen trees for several days of scouting adventures.

This experience gives the scouts an opportunity to "do their thing" in a natural location, and allows them to use their training to the fullest extent. The leadership corp is given the opportunity to give a lot of instructing, which is the purpose of their training.

Tim Nash, Ronnie Kyle, Tim and Mike Glenn, Jay Thomas, Scott Hetzler, Donald Oliver and Perry Foster all enjoyed this memorable, fun-type learning experience. And, as Don said, we give "Thanks to the Great Master above for bringing us some rain and for bringing the boys home safely."

THIS COMING FRIDAY night Troop 112 will be receiving Shannon Edwards and David Bromley into troop membership at a Cub event to be held at Camp Don Herrington — each equally benefiting the other!

GENE HOWE'S APACHE Tribe of the Y Indian Guides recently competed in a city-wide golf tournament at the Putt Putt — winning first place in the Palo Duro Nation! John Hicks won a dollar for sinking the first hole-in-one made, and Don Myer won a dollar for sinking the most holes-in-one made.

The tournament is an annual affair held strictly for the enjoyment of the big braves and the little braves. Lots of fun! Todd Bufkin also won a dollar for his holes-in-one.

KAROL HICKS, ALICIA Langford and Cindy Wilson have returned from a grand time at Camp Summer Life near Taos, N.M. The First Baptist Church of Canyon helped make the fun time possible for these charming young ladies.

KAROL MADE IT home just in time to join with her family for a super cool trip to California. Johnny and Phyllis Hicks and their other two youngsters, Sheila and John, had a busy and interesting time. They visited the Movieland Wax Museum in Los Angeles; toured the studios at Universal and NBC; visited the zoo in San Diego and even took a cruise in the harbor.

A visit to Disney Land was the highlight of their trip, though. Phyllis said most of the rides are educational; and she really enjoyed the space ride to the moon and "travelling through a microscope." They travelled through a swamp and on a submarine, a mono-rail and a people rail.

They were quite smitten with a lighted parade. The parade is held at night and the floats and animated Disney characters are all adorned with tiny, twinkling lights. (John was particularly smitten with a darling "snail" who walked over to him and bowed very genteelly before him!) A breathtaking fireworks display followed the parade.

The Hicks family found the time (and the energy) to "do" Las Vegas before returning home. They "did" the Circus Room mostly, though. Here is a place that offers separate and apart entertainment for the youngsters and for the adult types. Circus acts and carnival stands offered everyone the opportunity to see and do just what they wanted.

Oh yes, Phyllis reiterated what Charleen Moore said about the movie industry. During her tour of the Universal lot, Phyllis learned and said, "It's all fake on television and in the movies — the people are the only real things there!" And, Dennis Weaver was one of the "real people" the Hicks got to see during their tour.

TWO HUNDRED THIRTY five "thinking people" joined the Gene Howe PTA during registration day. Membership is still open, and Gene Howe patrons should be getting some PTA news soon — via the youngsters who will bring it home from school (hopefully). (Hopefully — they will get home with it, that is.)

THE AMARILLO AREA Council of the PTA recently held an orientation meeting. Attending were council officers and chairmen. Mrs. J. B. (Mogie) McCray of Panhandle spoke to the group on the structure and purposes of the PTA. Mogie is a state vice president and serves on the Texas PTA Board of Managers.

Jeannette Byars, council president, introduced Bill Lee, president of District 8. Mr. Lee encouraged participation in and support of the upcoming PTA convention which will be held in Corpus Christi in November. Mrs. Claude (Aurila) Currie, who is state chairman of Health and an active member of the Texas PTA Board of Managers from District 8, announced an upcoming seminar on smoking and alcoholism. The seminar will be held at West Texas State University on Saturday, Oct. 5, between nine and four o'clock. Area students will be attending this informative seminar.

Jeannette announced that the council sponsored "President's Meeting" will be held on Sept. 5, and that the first council board meeting will be held on Sept. 12. First council regular meeting will be held the first Monday in October at 1:30 o'clock in the School Administration Building in Amarillo.

The fall board meeting for District 8 will be Tuesday, Sept. 10, at 9:30 a.m., in the hospitality room at the Bank of the Southwest in Amarillo. The Gene Howe area has two representatives on this board of managers; namely, Raydell Palmer, who is chairman of the Parent and Family Life Education committee; and yours truly, who is Reading and Library Service chairman.

THERE WAS A wedding in the Grady and Ellen Wilson family before school opened last week. (Ellen is our L.L.D. lady at Gene Howe.) Their daughter, Linda, and Bruce Blake exchanged vows August 19 in the Hill Chapel at West Texas State University. The Reverend Bill Hayes, associate pastor a Paramount Baptist Church, performed the ceremony.

Following the ceremony, family and friends attended a reception held in the newlyweds' honor by Lynn and Dorothy Gill at their home in Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at College Station, as Bruce is working on his masters at Texas A & M. Linda recently graduated from West Texas with a degree in Fine Arts. The couple spent several days in the Eagle Nest - Red River environs before resuming school work.

We in the Gene Howe area extend our warmest best wishes to this charming young couple!

By BECKY HALL
County Extension Agent

Fashions and fabrics for fall are beginning to appear on the market.

Various dusty colors and big look styles are going to be important.

For Fall '74 teens, the major trends point to sportswear as the dominating influence, although there is increased interest in skirts and dresses.

Skirts are having a strong comback — coordinated with jackets, sweaters and shirts. They are featured in bias cut flared, pleated, full dirndl, easy A-line, pant-skirt and button front. Many will be made up in tweeds, plaids and flannels.

Sweaters are bigger than ever, as new toppers for pants, skirts and dresses. The hip-length "fanny" sweater is bulkier and coat-like. But you will see wrap-overs, sweater vests, pull-ons, twinsters and shawl collar cardigans. They will be featured in tweeds, stripes, multi-color, geometrics, shetlands and some with ribbing cable textures.

Jeans, of course, continue to be a major influence in denim and denim looks, from indigo to fade-out looks. They will be shown in corduroy, chambray, and polyester with an endless variety of graffiti trims.

Dresses go two ways — the look of multiples such as shirtdress plus sweater or shirt and wrap jacket plus skirt and some will have dress plus sweater or as 2 pieces. The other dress look will include the folklore influence with full silhouette, some with wide sleeves, gathers, quilting and flounces, and in long and short versions featuring challis, provincial, and patchwork prints. Detailing will include embroidery, crochet, lace, and applique.

Pants are basic, not abandoned, and the newest are cuffless and with straight legs.

Jackets from waist to 7/8 lengths in warm fabrics take over full-length coats. Fabrics will include piles, and fur-looks such as curly lamb, smooth mouton, sheepskin and rabbit. Fur-look piles and sherpa trims will be used on tweeds, gabardines, sweater-knits, suede and leather looks. Jacket shapes will be in wrap-over, blazer, shirt-jacket and baseball jacket.

The sporty ensemble will be accessorized with narrow brim hats in denim, suede and leather looks, and sweater-knits.

Knee socks in textured knits, worn with loafer-styled shoes with crepe soles and lower heels will be seen. Shiny textured belts in narrow to medium width in classic shapes are new.

Over-the-shoulder bags and some envelope are still good. Some matching hats and bags in patterns will be available. Fabric news focuses on cotton textures and color share the spotlight.

Textures stand out in tweeds, herringbones, slubs, nubs, twills and end-on-end weaves, with printed textures and fancy solids with the look of multi-colored or tonal.

The warm softened colors of hearth-tones, tinted neutrals, woodland neutrals, stand alone or create beautiful tonal pattern work, so important to the season.

Corduroy and velveteens have never looked as great. New eyes are on velour for sportswear dressing. There is revved-up interest in cotton terry. The denim explosion reverberates into Fall '74-75. Twills, ducks and canvas will range from solids to prints in foulards to batiks.

Skirts and dresses dominate over pants for fashion news. The longer lengths (most popular hovering at the knee, but wander down for novelty or personal preference) will make the scene. The cocktail length is newer than full length.

Black is back, but in a softer mood for day and evening. Fashion newcomers are pinks and purples.

Readin' And Writin'

The mother of "The Waltons" clan is involved each week in setting a fine example for her brood. Playing the mother role is Michael Learned, winner of two consecutive Emmy Awards. In a recent article about Miss Learned she said that the 14 hours a day that she spends with the "Waltons" brood is quite different from the life she leads as the mother of three sons ranging in ages from 11-17.

A summertime sipper can be something made of milk for a cool, nourishing and refreshing break. For three tall creamy coolers take one cup of fresh strawberries and mash then mix or blend with two Tbsp. sugar and 1/2 pint softened strawberry ice cream. Now add two cups of cold milk and beat until frothy. Pour into tall glasses and top each drink with a scoop of vanilla or chocolate ice cream.

Upcoming on the agenda for fall will be another "home tour" sponsored by the University Study Club of Canyon. The tour is used as a fund raising project by the club and has offered city and area residents the opportunity to see a number of Canyon homes over the years. It will be held October 13 and currently four homes are listed to be opened to the public but the tour planning committee hopes to have a few more in the final line-up when the time comes.

With this cooler weather it brings to mind that fall and winter will be ahead. . . so just happened to note in a news release recently that "winter-time grilling" requires more briquets to offset the lower outdoor temperature. If you are lucky enough to have an inside fireplace, you can charcoal grill in the fireplace but remember to provide adequate ventilation because "as charcoal briquets burn they give off an odorless gas (carbon monoxide)" which must be vented outdoors so be sure the fireplace flue or damper is open for smoke and fumes to be released.

Salad Supper Set For Sr. Citizens

Salads will be the main dish for the Canyon Senior Citizens when they meet tonight, Thursday, at the Canyon Community Center for games, fellowship and supper together.

The group convenes at 7 p.m. and an invitation is extended all senior citizens of the community to participate in the games and fellowship.

Son's Family Visits Mrs. Stipe In City

Churches Ending Summer Activities

Several city churches are currently making plans to end the summer vacation with picnics, retreats and campouts for members of their churches.

An overnight campout is set for Friday evening, Aug. 30, by the Grace Baptist Church of Canyon. The members will spend the night camped in Palo Duro Canyon, according to Richard Korsmo, pastor.

Who Lost The Film??

By MARY NEAL HENRY

THREE ROLLS OF film are at the Happy Bus Depot which is Al's Restaurant. They've been there since the July 4th week end. They are definitely addressed to someone with a Happy address, but the name is illegible. If you even think these might be your film, please go by and talk to Margaret. She knows that someone is surely broken-hearted because the film hasn't shown up.

HAPPY ARTISTS EXHIBITED 79 paintings at the art show during the Happy Days Celebration. Mary Catherine Moudy won Best of Show with her watercolor of "Ghost Town." She received $75 for this award.

Joyce Boston won second with an oil portrait of an Indian woman. Joyce won $50 for second place. Helene McFarland won third with an acrylic of modern art design. Helene was awarded a $25 prize.

Bob Hargrave won first in graphics with his picture of the Happy depot. Bob handed several of these out on the street on postcards and said, "Help advertise our town," I asked him if he really thought I'd give mine away. So he gave me two.

Peggy Bell won second with a sketch of her father. Peggy is very good sketching people. She did a picture of Ken for me from a school picture and the sketch is better than the photograph. Course, Peggy knew what Ken looked like. She helped raise him.

Bob Hargrave also won third with his drawing of Posey Bonds, an excellent likeness. "There's Posey!" you heard me exclaim, if you were in the flea market when I was. There was no doubt about who was in the picture.

Gaytha Fellers won first and second in the mixed media art. She won first with the bird salt painting and second with the building design. David Stuart won third with his pueblos.

Joyce Boston won first in oils with her Indian woman's portrait. Linda Pond won second and Ollie Nichols won third.

Cathy Moudy won first in the watercolor division with her Best of Show picture. Cathy also won second. Edna Foster won third.

Helene McFarland walked away with the acrylic division. She won first, second and third. Gay tells me that you must work very fast with acrylics because they dry readily. You just aren't allowed to make mistakes. That sounds like Helene.

Ollie Nichols won the Merchants award. These merchants, Happy Artists, Nell Martin Dry Goods, Corner Drug, Tirey Hardware, Wallace Motor Company, Taylor-Evans, Farm Store, Sexton Grocery, Happy China Shop, State Farm Insurance, and Bilt Rite Farms, contributed $108 for Ollie's painting and it will hang in the Happy Schools.

Mary Lamb won the second place purchase award of $100. First State Bank purchased the picture for the school. Linda Pond won third place purchase award and $50 purchase of her painting.

Happy Artists Club had 23 booths in the flea market this year. There were wares of every description.

Museum Operation Study For WTSU Evening Class

A behind-the-scenes look at museums and their operations will be offered for the first time as part of the West Texas State University evening classes.

"Museums: Philosophy and Organization," Arts and Sciences 299-3, is an interdisciplinary special topics credit course taught by Dr. James Hanson, 27-year-old director of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, on Tuesday evenings at WTSU. The class will begin at 7 p.m.

The course will "examine critically the purpose and function of museums as cultural and educational institutions," Hanson said.

Opening the course will be a brief history of museums and discussion on the types of professional museums, such as art, science and industry, history and local/regional. The museum's physical plant, financing and collections will also be examined.

Registration for this course will be Aug. 30-31 in the WTSU Student Activities Center. For more information, contact Dr. Hanson, Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, or Dean of Admissions and Registrar Don Cates, WTSU.

Hanson came to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum last February after serving as director of the Museum of the Fur Trade at Chadron, Neb., since December, 1972. He was curator of exhibits at the Chadron Museum from 1965-70 while earning bachelor's and master's degrees at Chadron State College.

He received a Doctor of Philosophy degree in American history from the University of Wyoming in 1973. While working toward his doctorate he served as a teaching assistant in history at the university, as a technician at the University of Wyoming Anthropology Museum and as a consultant to the Wyoming State Museum System.

Hanson graduated with honors in scholarship and history from Chadron State College in 1969, and received a Smithsonian Institution study grant for research on the Plains Indians in 1972. He has had 15 articles published on various topics of western history.

WT Speaker Bureau Booklet Available

The West Texas State University Speaker's Bureau booklet is now being distributed to civic organizations around the Golden Spread.

The Speaker's Bureau booklet will enable program chairman to select from over 300 topics and over 100 faculty and staff members from West Texas State.

The Speaker's Bureau was started last fall by Wayne Hughes, the university's Broadcast Bureau Chief. The initial information on the program was in a pamphlet, also mailed to the list of over 100 organizations.

The new 27-page booklet lists the available speakers by topic as well as providing biographical material on each of the participants.

Anyone interested in further information on the Speaker's Bureau can contact Wayne Hughes, Broadcast Bureau, Box 788, WT Station, Canyon, Texas 79016; telephone 656-3953.

Reservoir Engineering Is New WTSU Course

Principles of Reservoir Engineering, Geology 599-2, is a new West Texas State University Saturday morning course to be offered during the fall 1974 semester.

Registration for the course will be from 10:40 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 31, in the WTSU Activities Center. Late registrants may enroll at the Registrar's Office from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 3, through Friday, Sept. 6, or from 8-9 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 7.

summer camp before he can be commissioned as a second lieutenant," Luke said.

The second is a two-year ROTC program "for the student who for some reason could not take the courses the first two years." This student would receive special instruction at a six-weeks camp between his sophomore and senior year that would allow him to complete the regular program in college.

At present, ROTC programs are the prime suppliers of officers in the Army. Only 100 individuals in Officers Candidate School are commissioned each year, Luke points out, and military schools provide only a minimal amount.

"So for the individual who is seeking to be an officer in the Army, ROTC is definitely the best way."

Luke and his wife Sarah, who live in Canyon, have four children: Kathryn, 18, Ann, 16, Joan, 11, and John, 8. Luke attended Virginia Military Institute, and later received his bachelor in economics from Park College near Kansas City, and his master's from Boston University.

brother, Roger Saldivar.

He said this continued for several days with Duran harrassing Saldivar on several occasions.

He reported that Duran accosted Saldivar Sunday afternoon at Tenth and Arthur in Amarillo and assaulted him. Saldivar fled and Duran gave chase through North Amarillo for some time before Saldivar managed to elude him.

Dowlen said Duran apparently lay in wait about a half block from the Saldivar home later in the day and began firing upon Saldivar as the man was going home.

The district attorney said Saldivar had in the meantime armed himself and returned Duran's fire killing him.

Dowlen reported that an Amarillo Police Department investigation revealed what appears up to this time to be a clear case of self defense.

Saldivar was released without charge.

Kabobed Fruit And Meats Tops For Barbecued Meals

By LORENA MILLER

Lazy-day appetites receive an added boost when steaks or thick juicy hamburgers are ready on the grill in the backyard.

Some of the things to serve alongside the main dish include fresh vegetables prepared in foil packets and cooked on the grill alongside the barbecue — other tasty treats can come from the 'frig if prepared in advance.

Vegetables in Foil

Cut four 9 x 12 inch pieces of heavy-duty aluminum foil. Use two fresh tomatoes, two onions, one green pepper, and 8 fresh mushrooms in each foil packet to serve four.

Alternate two thin slices of onion with two slices of fresh tomato cut about ½ inch thick. Arrange in an overlapping row along each side of foil. Top each row with thick green pepper rings and fresh mushroom slices.

Season lightly with salt and pepper and top each stack with 1 teaspoon of butter or margarine.

Close foil packet tightly with a double fold and sealed ends. Place the vegetable packets on the grill along with the steaks and allow to cook for 15-18 minutes until the vegetables are tender.

Or if you prefer kabobing the fresh vegetables you may like a Parmesan Butter Sauce for basting using the following recipe: 6 Tbsp. (¾ stick) butter, ¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese, 1 Tbsp. lemon juice, ½ teaspoon leaf oregano. Place kabob skewers on the grill about 5-6 inches from coals and cook 8-12 minutes brushing on the Parmesan Butter Sauce while cooking.

Instead of stuffing the char-broiled hamburger patty into a bun you might like a variation to include pattie toppings from the following recipes. First off select two pounds of ground beef seasoned lightly with two teaspoons of salt and ¼ tsp. pepper. Shape into 6-8 patties averaging about ¾ inch thick. Char-broil about 2-3 inches from heat allowing 8-10 minutes on each side. Turn and broil to degree of doneness desired. Serve the beefburgers hot from the grill with accompanying toppings available for guests to select their choice.

Guacamole Topping: Mash one large ripe avocado (about ¾ cup) and stir in 1½ tsp. lemon juice along with 1½ tsp. grated onion, ¼ tsp. salt and 6 drops of hot pepper sauce. Spoon onto beefburgers and top with cubes of peeled fresh tomato.

Blue Cheese-Sour Cream Topping: Mix 1/3 cup crumbled blue cheese with 2/3 cup dairy sour cream and 2 Tbsp. thinly sliced green onion. Place a thick green pepper ring on each beefburger and fill center with blue cheese mixture. Top with finely sliced green onion if desired.

Festive Olive Topping: Combine 1/3 cup sliced stuffed green olives that have been cut in half with 1/3 cup sliced pitted ripe olives (also cut in half). Mix lightly with 3 Tbsp. mayonnaise and 3 Tbsp. dairy sour cream. Serve atop char-broiled beefburgers.

Mushroom-Pepper Relish Topping: Combine 1 jar (about 2½ ounce size) of sliced mushrooms and one tablespoon butter. Cook together slowly in saucepan until all liquid evaporates. Stir in 1 Tbsp. sliced green onion and ½ cup sweet pepper relish. Mix well and serve on burgers.

Creamy Mustard Topping: Combine ¼ cup prepared mustard with ½ cup mayonnaise and 1 Tbsp. very thinly sliced onion. Mix well before serving on burgers.

Another change for the burger fest is Mexican Burgers styled with a filling to serve 8. First off prepare the sauce which consists of 1 can (7¾ ounce size) frozen avocado dip, thawed; 1 Tbsp. fresh lemon juice, 1 Tbsp. chopped green onion. Set the sauce aside until burgers are ready.

To prepare the burgers: Lightly mix 2 pounds ground beef, 2 slightly beaten eggs, ½ tsp. salt and 1 tsp. Worchestershire sauce. Shape the mixed beef into 16 patties about 4 inches in diameter and in the center of 8 patties place about 2 Tbsp. grated cheddar cheese. (Begin with 1 cup of shredded Cheddar cheese.)

Grill one side of the hamburger, turn and place about 2 Tbsp. sauce on each patty. Grill to desired degree of doneness, basting with sauce.

Serve on toasted buns with chopped tomato.

HOME-BAKED BEANS with bacon chips, fresh onions, and tossed salad are welcome accompaniment for backyard barbecuing any warm summer afternoon. Try sausage and cheese slices as appetizers or a hot sauce dip with tortilla chips to entertain the guests until the barbecue is ready to serve.

Happy To Scrimmage Tonight If Rain Does Not Hamper Field

The Happy Cowboys will scrimmage the Lefors Pirates if the rain does not soak the playing field according to Cleve Vessels, head coach for the Cowboys. The scrimmage will be played Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. in Happy.

Vessels' charges will be going without the services of Pat Sims. Sims, a starting end, injured his knee during the scrimmage with Vega. Sims will not return to the line-up until the first game of regular season play against Claude. Sammy Moore, a freshman, will fill the gap until Sims returns.

Danny Bell has been lost to the team for the remainder of the season. Though Bell is back in school and doing fine, the doctor will not release him to play football. Bell was on the second string for the Cowboys.

Johnny Payne, senior fullback, will be back in the line-up during the scrimmage. Payne hurt and injury-prone shoulder during the scrimmage at Vega but he is over the initial soreness.

Coach Vessels stated that he will hold his charges to the same game plan as used against Vega. He said that he did not want to reveal any of the new plays they have been developing until the game against Claude.

Lefors will offer good competition to the Cowboys. The Pirates are loaded with size, experience and speed. They have one of the toughest schedules of any class B team in the state.

Their only weakness is lack of depth. This, as Happy well knows, can get any team in trouble in a hurry.

Lefors will be running in an I formation during the coming season. Barney Sawyer, 5-11, 190 pound senior, will be carrying the load for the Lefors backfield. Sawyer is rated among the top players in class B football for the Panhandle area.

They have three all-state candidates in the backfield. Sawyer, Bobby Dunn, senior quarterback and Greg Beck, senior halfback.

It all depends on the rain.

Texas Invitational Sees Kent-Nichol Runner-up

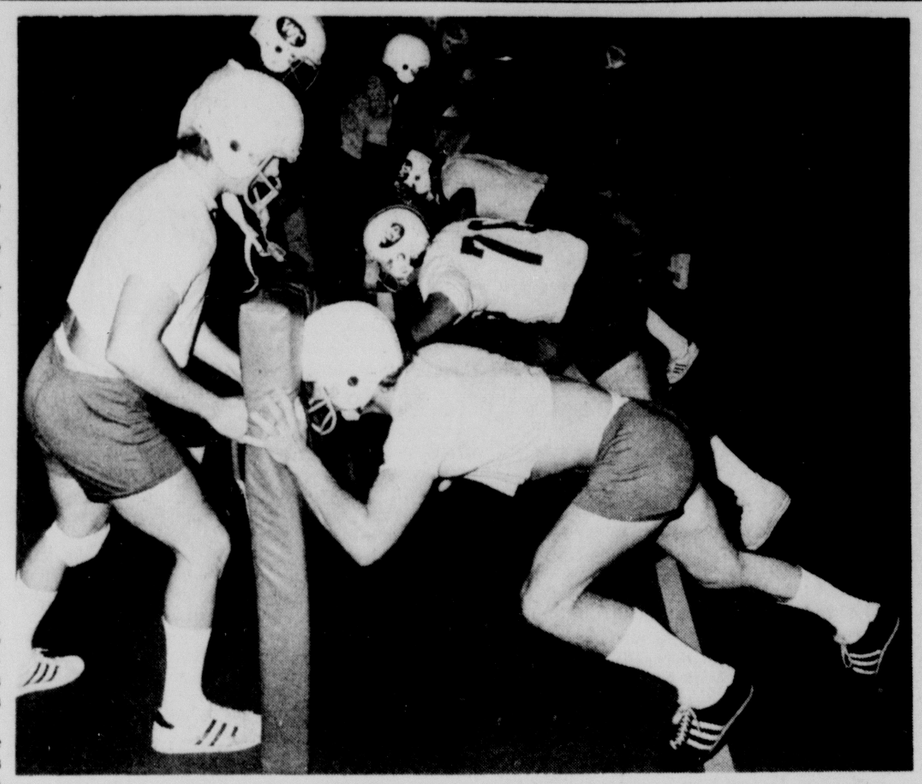

For the third consecutive year, David Kent, head tennis coach at WTSU, was on the runner up team in the Third Texas Invitational Round-Robin Doubles Championships. His partner was Phil Nichol of Amarillo.

A collection of the best double teams in Texas gathered for this unique tournament. Each team played each other team a full tournament match during the three day tournament weekend.

The 1974 over-all champions, Roland Ingram of Midland and Laurence Becker of Austin added their names to the list of former winners. Ingram and Becker defeated Kent and Nichol 7-6 (5-4), 6-7 (3-5) and 6-4.

During the rains last week, the Buffaloes of WTSU were forced to workout in doors. Coach Gene Mayfield is pleased with the conditioning of the players as it took place in the Activities Center on the WT campus. Mayfield stated that working in doors had given them a head start for the coming year. The Buffs put on pads Monday and will workout until their first game September 14 when they travel to Drake University.

Their First Workout. . .

These junior high students are experiencing their first workout of the year. Though Physical Education classes are not counted sports as are extra-curricular activities, these young men will soon find themselves in good physical condition. Not only will they participate in exercises but also in various games that will build physical stamina and ability.

Eagles To Scrimmage Friona

Twenty seniors will man the squad that the Canyon High School Eagles will scrimmage Friday night in Friona as they go against the Friona Chieftains. Game time is 6:30 p.m. for the junior varsity and 7:30 p.m. for the varsity.

The Chieftains, coached by Bob Owen, will have 14 lettermen, six offensive starters and six defensive starters.

Two major threats will be trying their hand against the Eagle defense. The first threat is quarterback Clay Bandy, a 5-11, 170 pound senior. Bandy is picked for honors in class AA in the Panhandle this year. He will be the field general for the top ranked team in district 3-AA. The other threat will be a major target for Bandy this year. He is Dale Cleveland, 6-4, 185 pound senior end.

Cleveland is also picked among the top players in AA ball this year. Cleveland was All-South Plains in football last year and also excels in basketball and track.

Also assisting in total yardage in the backfield are a host of good sized quick juniors and seniors. Even the back-up quarterback for the team this year is a senior, Dusty Peters.

The Chieftains will operate from a straight T offense and will use a 5-4 defense.

The team is being called one of the best teams to come out of Friona High School in some time.

The Friona team should offer more competition to the Eagles received from the Denver City Mustangs last week if for no other reason than the fact that the field will hopefully be drier. The Eagles managed to score the only TD of the game last week.

During the scrimmage this week, the Eagle coaching staff will be watching closely the effort of the sophomores still working with the varsity team. Ron Mills, head coach of the CHS Eagles, stated that presently there are six sophomores on the varsity. He stated that the coaching staff was still not sure who would be moved back to the junior varsity.

Coach Mills feels that the Friday night contest will be a good experience for his team members. Mills is especially concerned about the way his charges will respond to the offensive ends of the Chieftains. Both of the Friona ends were All-State last year in basketball.

This will be the last scrimmage contest for the Eagles prior to the start of regular season play. The Eagles will go against Lubbock Monterey Sept. 6 here to open the season.

Golf Tourney To Be Played

The weekly golf tournament at Hunsley Hills Golf Course will be played today unless rainfall continues according to Dale Newman, pro at the Hunsley Hills course.

Dumas Couple Has Daughter

The infant weighed 7 pounds, 2½ ounces and measured 19 inches at birth. A farmer, the father is employed with Willie Wieck Farms at Dumas.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thompson of Amarillo. The paternal grandparents are Mrs. Alice Koch of Umbarger and Max Koch of Monroe, Nebraska.

Booster Club Sets Ice Cream Night

Next Monday evening at 7 p.m., the Booster Club will meet at the High School cafeteria. Parents are invited to take their cameras and take pictures of the various teams. Ice cream will be served to the players and members. All football teams in the school program will be present.

Membership in the booster club is open to businesses and individuals. Dues are $2 per individual, $4 for families and $25 for businesses.

Jay Churchwells Have Daughter

The young miss is the first child for Mr. and Mrs. Jay Churchwell, 407 18th Street, Canyon. Father of the infant is in the custodial department at West Texas State University and is a junior agriculture business major.

Western Art Volumes Gift To Canyon Public Library

Canyon Public Library will receive a five-volume set of books devoted to various aspects of Texas cultural heritage and western art as a part of the new $15,000 cooperative project between the Amon Carter Museum of Western Art in Fort Worth and the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities (TCAH), Austin.

The gift volumes were announced recently in a joint statement issued by Mitchell A. Wilder, director of the Amon Carter Museum, and Maurice Coats, executive director of TCAH, a state agency. Canyon's Public Library will be among 588 public libraries throughout Texas who are available to receive the gifts. The project is funded equally by the two organizations under the TCAH Major Institutions Program and the Amon Carter Museum of Western Art in Fort Worth is publisher of the books as well as being a leading repository of Western art.

The gift volumes cover the history of the emerging West as depicted by the artists and artisans of the times. They tell of the battleground at Little Big Horn and the razzle dazzle of the Wild West shows; they picture the Texas homes of the 19th Century and life in a "Texasmost" city (Fort Worth) of the 20th Century.

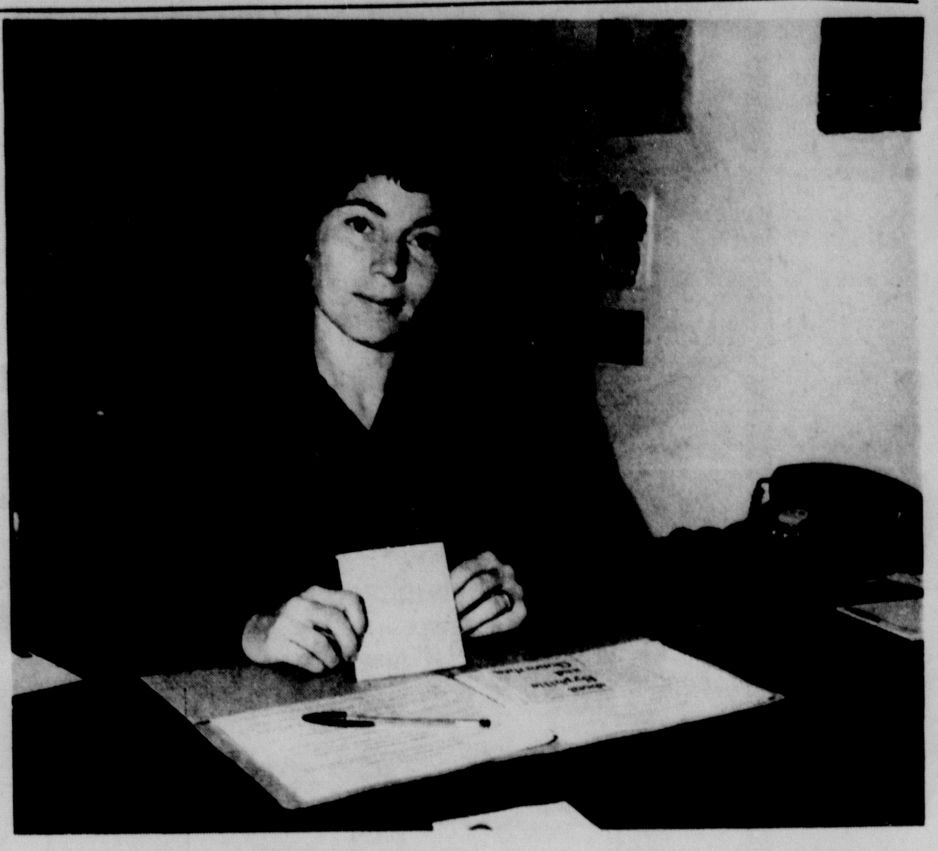

Included is the catalogue of the collections of the Amon Carter Museum, which was just recently released. It contains more than 600 pages of descriptions and photographs of the collection which was begun by the late Amon G. Carter of Fort Worth. The catalogue is virtually a study guide for students of western art.

Also included is the book "Texas Homes of the 19th Century" by Drury B. Alexander, University of Texas, Professor of Architecture. It is the most important book available on 19th Century Texas architecture.

Two other books, by Don Russell, editor of "Chicago Westerners" are entitled "Custer's Last," and "The Wild West, A History of Wild West Shows." They also contain many color plates and black and white reproductions of paintings, drawings, graphics and photographs of the period. Many are from the Carter Museum collection.

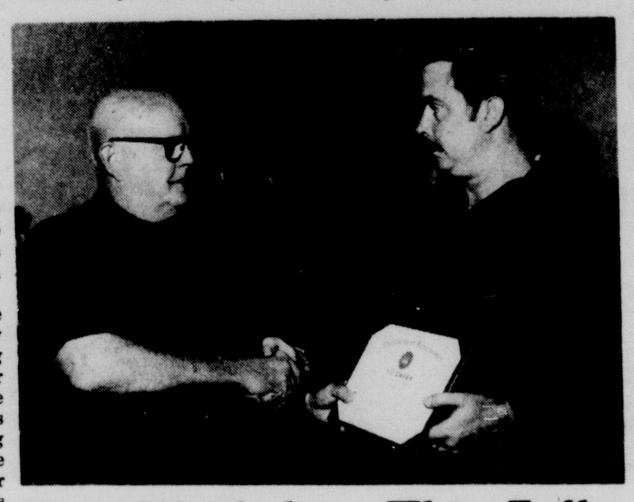

The fifth book, by Leonard Sanders, is a history of Fort Worth, Texas, titled "How Fort Worth Became the Texasmost City." It contains 131 photographs, which "reflect life in Fort Worth from the early lean years of a century ago until the beginning of the second major period of growth at the outbreak of World War I." According to Mr. Sanders, it was during these decades the basic character of Fort Worth was formed.

All five books are published by the Amon Carter Museum of Western Art.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD has a new outreach worker, Deloris Cole, in the office at Randall County Courthouse, Room 201. Planned Parenthood office is an agency offering family planning guidance for both men and women as well as giving informative programs for other groups including school age students. In addition to programs, various booklets on diseases are available at the local office and the family service includes pap smears and physical examinations for women and operates a Planned Parenthood Clinic for medical care in Amarillo with doctors and nurses on staff.

Achievement Certificate To Schuette

Specialist David W. Schuette was presented with a Certificate of Achievement from VII Corps of the United States Army in Europe recently.

Schuette was presented the certificate for exceptionally meritorious service while serving as technical director and actor for the VII Corps Road Show. He was commended for his determination in utilizing available materials within the military supply system and for his ingenuity to piece materials together saving the US government a great unneeded expense.

The achievement certificate signed by George S. Blanchard, Lieutenant General of United States Army and Commanding General of VII Corps, states that Schuette provided entertainment to over 100,000 VII Corps troops and dependents as a member of the Road Show and also provided a tremendous boost to German American relations.

Specialist Schuette commanded confidence and respect from his superiors and peers bringing distinct credit to himself, VII Corps, and the United States Army, states the certificate.

Schuette is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Schuette, east of Canyon. He graduated from Canyon High School and attended West Texas State University. For several seasons, Schuette played the hilltop rider opening the outdoor musical drama 'TEXAS.'

Test Workshop This Fall

The latest techniques in evaluating students in secondary schools and colleges will be discussed in an education workshop during the fall semester at West Texas State University.

Class meetings are from 7 to 9:40 p.m. Thursdays in Room 201 of the Education Building on the WTSU campus.

Dr. Thomas MacOwan, associate professor of education, is seminar coordinator for Evaluation Techniques in Secondary Schools and Colleges Ed. S 592-9.

The class is designed to provide in-service training for secondary and college teachers in the latest techniques and developments in evaluating students. Special emphasis will be given to making the course apply directly to the classroom, Dr. MacOwan says.

Students in this class will be given opportunities to become proficient in writing behavioral objectives, analyzing tests, determining the discrimination index and difficulty index of test items, MacOwan says.

Dr. MacOwan had extensive secondary school teaching and administrative experience prior to his college teaching. He served as teacher, coach and principal in Indiana public schools before coming to WTSU in 1955.

Enrollment for the course will be on the WTSU campus August 30 and 31. For further information, contact Dr. MacOwan, Secondary and Higher Education, WTSU, 656-2493 or 352-6304. Admission and registration procedures can be obtained from the Dean of Admissions and Registrar, WTSU.
